I am using Logos® features to create sample content for this presentation. Other online or downloadable software applications may contain similar features that do the same thing. I have used Logos for over 20 years now, so it's what I know. This is not meant to disparage or discourage the use of other applications you may be familiar with that have similar features. This presentation is not intended to describe HOW to create the content I'm showing. Logos has several built-in tutorials available for its various features.

Using an English Concordance

- An English concordance (print or electronic) allows you to look up any word that occurs in a particular version of the Bible and find all its occurrences in that version.
- Popular English versions include Strong's (KJV) and NIV Exhaustive Concordance (NIV-EC). Many computer and Internet Bible programs use the “search” feature to function as a concordance.
- Print versions of Greek-English and Hebrew-English concordances keyed to the same number systems as Strong's or modern versions (G/K) are available.

Defining the Study

- Let's say you're doing a study on Hebrews 13:17–18, a passage about leadership. One of your first checks might be to look at several versions of the Bible to see how it's translated. You notice the following, which I've created using the "Compare Translations" feature in Logos®.

Hebrews 13:17

NIV84 Obey your leaders and submit to their authority. They keep watch over you as men who must give an account. Obey them so that their work will be a joy, not a burden, for that would be of no advantage to you.

NIV Have confidence in your leaders and submit to their authority, because they keep watch over you as those who must give an account. Do this so that their work will be a joy, not a burden, for that would be of no benefit to you.

ESV Obey your leaders and submit to them, for they are keeping watch over your souls, as those who will have to give an account. Let them do this with joy and not with groaning, for that would be of no advantage to you.

NASB95 Obey your leaders and submit to them, for they keep watch over your souls as those who will give an account. Let them do this with joy and not with grief, for this would be unprofitable for you.

KJV 1900 Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you.

NLT Obey your spiritual leaders, and do what they say. Their work is to watch over your souls, and they are accountable to God. Give them reason to do this with joy and not with sorrow. That would certainly not be for your benefit.

NKJV Obey those who rule over you, and be submissive, for they watch out for your souls, as those who must give account. Let them do so with joy and not with grief, for that would be unprofitable for you.

Key Observation

- You might be wondering why the NIV has “Have confidence” when all of the other versions have “Obey.”
- You also notice that the previous version of the NIV (1984 translation) has “Obey,” but the updated 2011 version made the switch to “Have Confidence.”
- Let’s start with the 1984 version of NIV and find out what other passages have “obey.”

A portion of the “obey” entry from the printed version of the NIVEC for the 1984 version

•The boldface “o” indicates that this is where the word “obey” appears in the text. Other words that are translated from the Greek word appear in boldface (e.g., James 3:3). Helper words (e.g., “do”) or words implied by the grammar (e.g., “for”) are in italics (1 Peter 4:17). “NIG” means a corresponding Greek word is not found in the Greek NT.

Other features of *NIV*EC

Read the “How-to” in the print version for details on how the Concordance is arranged. I’ll provide a quick summary here.

- Each entry line is called a “context line.”
- The G/K numbers correspond to the dictionary in the back of the concordance. Roman for Hebrew; italic for Greek.
- NIG/NIH mean Not in Greek/Not in Hebrew
- The headword contains information about related forms of the word, its frequency, and a summary of G/K numbers used to translate the word.

Logos Concordance Info

- Logos is built around the Strong's Greek number, but all resources are cross-referenced to the G/K and Louw & Nida number systems.
- In the Logos list, you can right-click the Greek number for several options, including a search page on the Greek word to see how it's translated elsewhere (see sample later).
- The Greek lemma (dictionary form) is shown as a visual cue for the different words used.

Looking up the Greek Word

- In the NIVEC, if you turn to the “Greek-English Dictionary” in the back section and look for 4275, you will find this summary:

4275 πείθω, peithō, v. [52] [→ 400, 577, 578, 579, 2340, 4272, 4273, 4274, 4282, 4301, 4391, 4392; cf. 4412].

Explaining the Dictionary Entry

- The entry shows the Greek or Hebrew word with its transliteration
- When referencing a Greek or Hebrew word in a research paper or blog post, use the transliteration at a minimum, including the special characters ( $\bar{e}$ ,  $\bar{o}$ ). Do not use the number to reference the word!
- The entry also contains the part of speech and all the English words that it translates to.
- See the front matter for more detailed info.

Why is this important?

- One of the most important reasons to utilize a concordance is to perform a “word study” on key words in your target text.
- A concordance helps you see the “range of meaning” of a particular Greek or Hebrew word, that is, what is the broad usage of the word throughout a testament.

Why is this important?

- A word study helps you decide which one of those meanings was the author's intended meaning in your target passage. A biblical author rarely uses a word to imply more than one meaning, and he certainly doesn't intend to suggest that the reader can choose from the different meanings, as the Amplified Bible suggests.

Expediting the Process

- As you might imagine, it could get rather involved looking up each English word in the translation list in the NIVEC and trying to find the specific verses that have that word number.
- A much easier way would be to use a Greek-English or Hebrew-English concordance with English context lines. Sample entries from the Greek-English Concordance (based on the NIV) for peithō (4275) follow.

The Whole Entry

Blueletterbible.org

- The Web site www.blueletterbible.org has an excellent setup to explore the Greek and Hebrew behind the English text.
- When you go to the Web site, type in any verse. You will see a series of boxes next to each verse. Click the “C” box, and the Greek or Hebrew text will open, with all forms parsed and with all words (in the Strong’s numbering system; different from the NIV numbers) hyperlinked.
- When you click the Strong’s number, you will get a Greek-English Concordance-style listing.
